

Join us for the
10th Annual BBB Retreat
Feb. 23-25, 2018

“A Weekend with Our Stories: Entering, Owning, and Discovering a New Ending”

Each year we retreat to the coast to go deeper into reflection over a topic and to rest. Over this retreat weekend, we'll move through our stories using the lenses of spirituality, creativity, and wholeheartedness. We'll also use Brené Brown's book Rising Strong as a framework for our weekend together. (We encourage you to read Rising Strong prior to the retreat, but it's not a requirement.)

What Happens

Starting Friday evening and ending Sunday morning, we'll spend the weekend exploring our stories through facilitated sharing, small group discussions, individual reflections, plus...activities, play and quiet time.

Who Attends

24 women of all backgrounds and ages from our extended BBB communities.

Cost

The retreat costs $120/person.

Cost includes the house, food and all retreat activities for the weekend.

Donations and Scholarship information are available online.

What to Expect

Connection, fun, reflection. A place to share deeply.

Shared sleeping quarters based on personal preferences.

Time to explore the beach, to socialize and to find solitude.

Coordinated carpooling available.

Delicious meals catered to all dietary needs.

Closing liturgy on Sunday by Pastor Melissa Reed (BBB co-founder).

Schedule for Friday Night:

The house opens at 5:00pm.

Dinner will be served at 6:00pm.

Late arrivals, please arrive by 7:00pm for our first session.

Questions? Contact Kaitlyn Devlin at kaitlyndevlin@gmail.com

When you own your own story, you get to write the ending.

– Brené Brown

Online registration starts Jan. 28, 2018, at 9am.

Register at: <https://impactflow.com/event/bbb-women-s-10th-annual-retreat-6411>